Dear Taxpayer:

Thank you for making arrangements to resolve your account. This letter responds to your inquiry dated Aug. 17, 2015, requesting a direct debit installment agreement.

We accepted your offer to pay your monthly installment payments by automatic deductions from your checking account. We'll deduct your payment of $300.00 on the 28th of each month.

The first payment we will deduct is the user fee of $43.00. Make sure you have enough funds in your checking account to cover the fee. The remaining payments will be $300.00 per your agreement.

Before we can deduct your monthly payments automatically, we must verify your account information.

We scheduled your first automatic withdrawal payment to be deducted from your checking account on June 28, 2015. If this payment withdrawal doesn't happen as planned, allow one more month before contacting us to report any problems.

What you need to know about your installment agreement

What you need to do

You must meet all conditions of your installment agreement. If you don't, we can cancel it and take enforcement action to collect the full amount of the tax liability. Enforcement action could include filing a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (which notifies your creditors of our lien against your property) or placing a levy on your wages or bank accounts. If we cancel your Installment Agreement and you later apply for and receive reinstatement, you'll have to pay a reinstatement fee.

The other conditions of this agreement are:
